

Christine Multari

General Manager, Executive Project Management, Walsh Companies

Christine joined the Walsh Companies in 2006. She brings her expertise in business development and project management from her previous positions within the Project Management and Furniture industries. In her role as General Manager for Walsh, Christine is focused on delivering the highest quality experience for our Clients managing relationships and introducing new concepts and products. Responsibilities include General Management of Walsh Company brands operations. Christine is active with CoreNet, IFMA, ALA and NEWIRE. Christine's role is resource and Project oversight.